

Activity of the R&DC "Telecommunications without Borders" is aimed at implementing a wide range of scientific and practical commercial and promotional activities of business and science in the field of ICT and Telecommunications. We are actively cooperating with government authorities, international organizations and associations to provide the international seminars, conferences, symposia and congresses

//

The main activities of the R&D Centre "Telecommunications without borders" are concentrated in the area of:

Economic Research:

- Service reorganization of company management, including development of optimal models for constructing the organizational structure of a vertically - integrated organizations
- Service audit of financial - economic activity operators, telecommunications providers
- Modeling study of the structure and activities of operators, telecommunications providers using mathematical and statistical models and methods of forecasting economic development
- Develop a methodology for calculating tariffs for telecommunication services
- Analysis of European law on the regulation of tariffs in the European Union
- Perform complex analysis of the markets of telecommunications services
- Provision of information - analytical services in the area of regulation of telecommunications, postal services, telecommunications Ukraine

Technical Research:

- Development of business plans for the establishment and modernization of telecommunications operators, the introduction of new services

- Development of a feasibility study on construction and reconstruction of telecommunication multi-service networks for operators / providers of telecommunications

- Design work on the construction and reconstruction of the hub equipment of outside plant and network
- Information and consultancy services:
- Auditing and financial analysis of companies
- Advice and support on the certification of telecommunication equipment in Ukraine
- Advice and support on licensing of telecommunications services in Ukraine
- The annual International Symposium "Telecommunications without borders" (organizer and sole owner of the trademark "International Symposium of the operators and providers of telecommunications" Telecommunications without Borders (TWB))

In 2009-2014 the center developed:

- The methodology of the operators with significant market power (the original decision on the integrated definition of the market share of the operator)
- Classifier telecommunication services
- Classifier operating costs of telecommunications operators
- Rules for submission, approval and reporting of investment plans of telecommunications operators in determining the size of the investment component rates
- Method of determining tariffs for access and interconnection
- Recommendations for the reorganization of OAO UKRSPETSSTROY (SVEMON)
- The calculation of tariffs for telecommunication services operator LTD "Golden Telecom"
- The calculation of tariffs for telecommunication services operator CJSC Ukrainian Radio Systems "
- The technique of separate accounting of the costs of telecommunications services to telecommunications operators in Ukraine
- By order of the Ukrainian Association of telecom operators "TELAS" and JSC "Giprosvyaz" in Research "Principles of tariffs for access to the wired telecommunications infrastructure", we have developed a Model calculation and the Procedure for revising tariffs for access to the wired telecommunications infrastructure.
- By order of the Eurasian Development Bank, we have made the industry report, "Integration processes in the telecommunications sector of CIS countries"
- In accordance with the decision of the Scientific and Technical Council of the National

Activity

Last Updated Thursday, 09 April 2015 18:56

---

Commission for Communications Regulation of Ukraine, we developed a Draft procedure for establishing tariffs for the services of traffic transmission in telecommunication networks of Ukrainian telecommunication operators

Приглашаю поиграть